Notable Marine Disasters. In the month of March, 1841, the steamer President sailed from New York with a large number of passengers; when two day out she is supposed to have encountered a terrible gale, and was never again heard from. On the 28th of April, 1847, the Exmouth, an emigrant ship from Londonderry, was wrecked, and nearly 240 lives lost, A still more disastrous wreck was that of the Royal Adelaide, which occurred on the Tongue Sands, off Margate, on which occasion 400 lives were lost. In September, 1850, the Edmond was lost on the western coast of Ireland, and more than half of the two hundred passengers perished. Upon the occasion of the loss of the troop ship Birkenhead, in Simon's bay, South Africa, in February, 1852, 454 of the crew and soldiers perished. Again, in 1853, just a year after this, the Independence took fire on the coast of Lower California, and 149 persons were consumed by the flames or drowned in the sea. In May of the same year 170 lives were lost by the wreck of the William and Mery near the Bahamas; and five mouths afterward 348 persons, mainly emigrant pass ngers, on the Annie Jane, of Liverpool, perished on the west shore of Scotland, where the vessel was beached. The Favorite, on her way from Bremen to Baltimore, in April, 1854, ran into the bark Hesper, and 201 lives were sacrificed. In May of the same year 400 officers and soldiers were lost with the Lady Nugent, a troop-ship, which foundered in a burricane, and in the succeeding fall the U. S. mail steamer Arctic came in contact during a fog with the French steamer Vesta, and a loss of 200 lives was the result. The steamer City of Glasgow disappeared also before the close of this disastrous year with 480 persons on board. In 1855 the only serious marine accident was the loss of the George Cunning near the mouth of the Elbe with ninetysix passengers on board. In 1855 the John, an emigrant vessel, was wrecked on the Munch

Rocks off Falmouth, on which occasion 200 lives were lost. On the 23d of February of the succeeding year the well-know Collins steamer with 186 souls, and was never again heard of. During the summer of 1857 the clipper ship Dunbar was wrecked near Sydney, and out of 122 persons on board only one was saved. In September of the same year the steamer Central America foundered at sea with 579 passengers; only 152 were rescued. On the 13th of September, 1858, the steam emigrant ship Austria was burned in mid-Atlantic; of the 538 passengers but 67 were saved. In September of the same year 317 Chinese emigrants lost their lives in consequen e of the wreck of the S'. Paul on the island of Rossel. Of the 419 persons on the Pomona, which was lost on Blackwater Bank, Ap il 28, 1859, only 24 were saved. During the same year the Royal Charter was wrecked off Moelfra, with a loss of 446 lives. On the night of February 2, 1860, a new mail steamer, the Hungarian, was wrecked off the coast of Nova Scotia, and all on board, 205, perished. Ten years ago this month 237 out of 443 persons, passengers on the Anglo-Saxon.

lost their lives when that steamer was wrecked off Newfoundland. In January of 1866 the steamer Loudon foundered in the Bay of Biscay, sacrificing about 220 lives. Among the more recent losses at sea that of the City of Boston, and that of the Northfleet, the Evening Star, the Central America, and the San Francisco may be added to the list.

A DINNER EXCUSE. - Apologies for poor dinners are generally out of place. But when a lady has a forgetful husband, who, without warning, brings home a dozen guests to sit down to a plain family dinner for three or four, it is not in human nature to keep absolute silence. What to say, and how to say it, form the problem. Mrs. Tucker, the wife of Judge Tucker, of Williamsburg, selved this problem many years ago. She was the daughter or niece (I am uncertain which) of Sir Peyton Skipwith, and celebrated for her beauty, wit, case and grace of manner. Her temper and tact were put to the proof one court day, when the judge brought with him the accustomed half score or more of lawyers for whom not the constantly on hand at the Factory. Call and slightest preparation had been made, the judge it was court day, and she herself, strange to SPRING, 1873. tell, having overlooked the fact.

The dinner was served with elegance, and Mrs. T. made herself very charming. Upon rising to leave the guests to their wine she said: "Gentlemen, you have dined to-day with Judge Tucker; promise me now that you will all dine to morrow with me.

This was all her apology, whereupon the gentlemen swore that such a wife was beyond price. The Judge then explained the situation, and the next day there was a noble ban

Moral: Never worry a guest with apologies. -Lippincott's Magazine.

Horses in Storms. - Avoid, as far as possible, exposing horses to storms. When on a journey, aim to feed at the regular hours. If nothing more can be done, take along some corn meal, and put a quart in a pail of water, and sur it up while the horse is dripking. It will greatly refresh and strengthen him. Many horses suffer from dyspepsia, and one great cause of it is irregularity in feeding, and giving too much grain when the horse is fatigued. When a horse has been exposed to a storm, and comes home in an exhausted condition, give him a warm bran mash.

Put two or three quarts of bran in a pail, and your on two or three quarts of boiling water, and stir it up; then add cold water sufficient to cool it to the temperature of new milk, and give it to the horse. Blanket the horse, and rub his head, ears, and legs dry, and afterwards rub him dry all over. Many an attack of colic would be avoided by these means. We think many farmers err in not feeding their horses more ou grain. It would be better to work harder, or at least more constantly, and feed higher, Of one thing we are very sure-not one farmer in ten grooms his horse sufficiently. It is a shame to a man to leave a horse at night, after a hard lay's work, until he has been rubbed clean.dry- | CEED OATS! beded, and all his wants attended to. - Farm-

ORGANIC WEAKNESS. Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgencies. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadul consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary · f pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who, from edu-cation and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of the horrid disease makes their appearance, such as norrid disease makes their appearance, such as dicerated sore throat, diseased nose, necturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melanchely fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being re stored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and Happiness in despair leaves him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
